

Part-Time Position in Sociology

St. Thomas University invites applications for an instructor to teach the following course in Fredericton:

Semester 1: (September to December 2023)

SOCI 3183A Sociology, the Self & the Other, T/TH 4:00 PM – 5:20 PM

We are nearly always relating to other people, even when we are alone. In this course, we look at several aspects of this relationship between self and other, using a variety of different theories. Topics may include: Taking the attitude of the other towards yourself (Theory: Symbolic Interaction); Being intensely engaged with another person (Theory: Phenomenology) The moment-by-moment co-ordination of our activities with others (Theory: Conversation Analysis.) Presenting a version of ourselves to others (Theory: Goffman); Mourning the death of someone close to us (Theory: Deconstruction). A number of feature films engaging with the themes of the course will be viewed and analyzed. Students are encouraged to discuss popular culture and their own experiences in light of the themes of the course.

St. Thomas University is an undergraduate, liberal arts institution with a full-time enrolment of 1,600. Its students graduate with Bachelor of Arts, Applied Arts, Education, and Social Work degrees. The faculty members are distinguished teachers, researchers and scholars, and the university holds two Canada Research Chairs.

A PhD is preferred; a Master's degree is required. Each applicant is to submit a curriculum vitae, along with pertinent documentation (ex. teaching portfolio etc.) and arrange to have three letters of reference sent directly to Dr. Mary Lou Babineau-Rosada, Acting Chair, Sociology Department, St. Thomas University, Fredericton, NB E3B 5G3. Electronic applications may be sent to maryloub@stu.ca.

Closing date: June 9, 2023, or when the positions are filled. Applicants are responsible for ensuring that their completed applications are received by this date.
