

Part-Time Position in Criminology

St. Thomas University invites applications for an instructor to teach the following courses in Fredericton:

Semester 2: (January to April 2025)

CRIM 1023E Introduction to Criminal Justice, THURSDAYS 6:30 PM – 9:20 PM

This course is designed to introduce the student to the role criminology plays in both formulating and critiquing criminal justice policy and a sampling of theoretical and methodological issues. It involves a critical look at the nature of the criminal justice system, the role of the state and the creation of policies through the passing of bills, legislation, and statutes pertinent to the interpretation of the Criminal Code. This course also introduces the student to core topics covered in electives in the second year: courts, young offenders, police, corrections, and victimology. This introductory course is a prerequisite for all upper-level courses.

A PhD, or imminent completion is preferred; a Master's degree is required. Applicants are to submit their application directly to Dr. Dawne Clarke, Chair of Criminology and Criminal Justice, St. Thomas University, Fredericton, NB E3B 5G3. Electronic applications may be sent to dclarke@stu.ca.

Closing date: July 19, 2024, or when the positions are filled. Applicants are responsible for ensuring that their completed applications are received by this date.
